

EarthFest

2006

Friday, April 21st

Downtown Dallas AT&T Plaza & Pegasus Plaza

Exhibits open from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.
Entertainment begins at 11:00 a.m.

The City of Dallas and the Environmental Protection Agency's Region 6 office, in collaboration with Downtown Dallas and Keep Dallas Beautiful, invite you to join in celebrating the "biggest ever" Earth Day in 2006. Earth Day is typically celebrated on April 22nd across the nation and internationally. Dallas will celebrate on Friday, April 21st by hosting a street fair in downtown Dallas, complete with entertainment and educational exhibits.

Come join the excitement!

Last year, EarthFest attracted over 10,000 people where audiences learned how they and local companies can impact the environment. Education and information will be provided through foot-stomping, hand-clapping entertainment and LOTS of free, unique and interesting goodies.

Mark your calendar and make plans to attend this fun and memorable event and participate, contribute and experience the learning to keep Dallas beautiful.

Come learn about Clean air, recycling, hybrid cars, clean water, mass transit, smart grown, and much, much more!
